Pray for Oleg in Ukraine

A couple of months ago, Lorne and a friend named Oleg spoke to us about his work in Ukraine. He has written out his testimony of how he got involved with bringing wounded and deceased soldiers back from behind enemy lines. Oleg wanted to share his testimony to encourage Christian brothers and sisters to continue holding him up in prayer. Here is an excerpt from his testimony:

“One day we were returning from a trip from the East, and I came across a message on my Instagram that drivers were needed to transport the wounded and dead. I did not waste time; immediately I began to write and find out more information. By the time I got home that night, I had already agreed on everything that I would drive more and transport the wounded. However I did not start transporting the wounded immediately; it was a very difficult moment for me. Emotionally, I was not ready for this. But then I agreed to go and try it. I did not know if I could handle what I was walking into. I didn't know if I would be able to endure it or not.

My first trip was so hard for me. The soldiers I found who had lost their lives were people I had become friends with. We had talked with them, laughed with them, got to know them, and now here I was driving them home dead. My heart was broken thinking of the other friends I had made. I thought “today they are alive, and tomorrow they are already dead. It is a very difficult job... Few people want to do this; physically and emotionally it is exhausting. In my heart I know that this is something that must be done. These brave men, who gave their lives for us must be brought home.”

Please continue to keep Oleg and Ukraine, and Ukrainian people in your prayers. If you would like to know more information about Oleg's testimony, please speak to Lorne G.
